

Student Worksheet 1-Objects of the One-Room Schoolhouse

Courtesy of the Wilson Collection

Artifact Analysis

1. What are these objects?
2. From what materials do you think are they made?
3. What do you think they are used for?
4. Do we still use this object today? If not, what would we use today to perform the same job as this object?
5. Write down one question you have about this object.

Courtesy of the Library of Congress

Artifact Analysis

- 1. What is this object?
- 2. From what materials do you think it is made?
- 3. What do you think it is used for?
- 4. Do we still use this object today? If not, what would we use today to perform the same job as this object?
- 5. Write down one question you have about this object.

Courtesy of the Library of Congress

Artifact Analysis

- 1. What is this object?
- 2. From what materials do you think it is made?
- 3. What do you think it is used for?
- 4. Do we still use this object today? If not, what would we use today to perform the same job as this object?
- 5. Write down one question you have about this object.

Courtesy of the Library of Congress

Artifact Analysis

1. What is this object (on the boy's head)?
2. From what materials do you think it is made?
3. What do you think it is used for?
4. Do we still use this object today? If not, what would we use today to perform the same job as this object?
5. Write down one question you have about this object.

Courtesy of the Library of Congress

Artifact Analysis

1. What is this object (sitting beside the dog)?
2. From what materials do you think it is made?
3. What do you think it is used for?
4. Do we still use this object today? If not, what would we use today to perform the same job as this object?
5. Write down one question you have about this object.

Artifact Analysis

1. What is this object?
2. From what materials do you think it is made?
3. What do you think it is used for?
4. Do we still use this object today? If not, what would we use today to perform the same job as this object?
5. Write down one question you have about this object.